POORVI BHATIA

778-903-4206 | poorvi.b26@gmail.com

Skills Summary

- Problem Solving: Proven ability to approach challenges analytically, finding efficient solutions to complex problems.
- Communication: Strong interpersonal and communication skills essential for effective collaboration with team members and clients, facilitating clear understanding of technical concepts.
- Organizational Skills: Adept at maintaining structure and organization in coding practices, file management, and project workflows, contributing to efficient development processes.
- Team Collaboration: Experience collaborating with fellow developers and cross-functional teams, promoting a cohesive and collaborative environment for successful software delivery.
- Programming Languages: Proficient in C, C++, JavaScript, HTML, and CSS, leveraging these languages to develop robust and efficient software solutions.

Education

Bachelor's in Applied Science

A second-year student pursuing a bachelor's degree in computer science at SFU.

Current GPA: 3.90. Expected graduation: 2026.

Experience

Blenz Coffee

Barista | August 2022 – September 2023

Serving customers with a friendly touch, taking accurate orders, and preparing quality beverages and food. Efficient in handling transactions, maintaining a clean workspace, and collaborating with the team for smooth operations and excellent customer service.

Volunteer

Greater Vancouver Food Bank

Volunteer | June 2021 – September 2022

Distributed food to clients and sorted donations in the warehouse. Contributed to a clean and organized workspace while demonstrating strong teamwork and communication skills.

CS Peer Tutor | SFU

September 2023 – current

Provide peer tutoring for first-year computer science courses, assisting students in understanding key concepts and solving programming problems.